

Chandler Garvey is an active supporter of many local charities and recently worked with Thames Valley Air Ambulance (TVAA) to assist them with the acquisition of 7,000 sq ft of new offices in Stokenchurch, an important component of TVAA's new delivery strategy.

Amanda McLean, CEO explains, "Thanks to the generous support TVAA received from the public, we are now in a position to move to a new operating model. We will be able to assume responsibility for clinical governance and the delivery of advanced critical care across the Thames Valley."

Dr Syed Masud, Medical Director, said "TVAA are delighted to have been able to reach this point. We are confident that this future model will allow us to continue to enhance the critical care service to meet the needs of the public that we serve."
